

Appendix C

NCJW Palm Beach Awards Reviewed and Revised by a Committee of Past Presidents November, 2018

President's Award

Criteria:

Presented by the President to a Board Member of good standing in recognition of her outstanding service in Advocacy and/or Community Service and of her commitment to moving Palm Beach Section forward. The award may be given annually at the Signature Event if there is a qualified candidate. Nominees will be decided by a committee of past and current presidents.

Plaque Inscription:

"NCJW Palm Beach Section President's Award presented to _____ in recognition of your outstanding service and commitment to making a difference to our Section." Date.

The award can be ordered from Baker's Trophy in Lake Worth.

Emerging Leader

Criteria:

This award is presented to a member who has the potential for assuming future leadership, understands and supports the NCJW mission and demonstrates commitment to Palm Beach Section. The member currently serves as a Board member and/or a committee chair and has done so for less than five (5) years.

This award may be given in alternate years at the Opening Event if there is a qualified candidate. The Tikkun Olam Award would be presented in the alternate year. The current VP's will recommend the nominees along with the rationale for the nomination. The list of nominees will be presented to the Executive Board. Voting by the Executive Board will be a closed vote in the form of an E-mail. The person with the largest number of votes will receive the award.

The award is the emerging leader pin from National

Hannah G. Solomon

Criteria:

The Hannah G. Solomon Award is presented by NCJW to a member who has changed the lives of others through his or her leadership, efforts and service.

Sections can present this award at any appropriate time. The award should be given to an individual in your community or to a Section member who has helped to change and expand the role of others in vital areas of community life, and whose leadership in areas of NCJW concern-improving the quality of life for women, children, and families- has motivated others to fight for change, and has resulted in progress and enlightenment in the community.

Palm Beach Section requires a combined minimum of ten (10) years membership in any Section.

The award is a bronze sculpture “Head of Young girl” by Helaine D. Blum, from a contemporary private collection and can be ordered from NCJW Warehouse Store Catalogue. Visit www.ncjw.org for the full catalogue and ordering information or email action@ncjw.org.

Women In Power

Criteria:

WIP is presented by NCJW to a non-member whose personal achievements have elevated her to role model status. Her exceptional accomplishments have helped to break the glass ceiling for herself and she serves as an inspiration to other women.

Plaque Inscription:

NCJW Palm Beach Section Women in Power
Presented to _____ on (date)

This award can be ordered from Baker’s Trophy in Lake Worth

Tikkun Olam

Presented to a Palm Beach Section member who, by her dedication and commitment, defines NCJW's mission in the pursuit of social justice in either Advocacy and/or Community Service. She exemplifies the meaning of Tikkun Olam, to repair the world, by her word or deed.

This award may be presented in alternate years at the Opening Event if there is a qualified candidate. The Emerging Leader would be presented in the alternate year.

The award may be ordered at Baker's Trophy in Lake Worth.

Outstanding Volunteer

Presented to a Palm Beach Section member who exhibits dedication and commitment to NCJW's mission by generously giving her time and effort to enrich the Section.

VP's and Chairwomen will submit the names of potential nominees with a rationale of her accomplishments. The nominees' names will be E-mailed to the Executive Board for a closed E-mail vote. The person with the most votes will receive the award. In the event of a tie, more than one person will receive the award.

The award is a framed Section certificate.